MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Contract Personnel Division

THROUGH : DD/Pers/SP

SUBJECT : CPD History Project

REFERENCES : (a) Memo dtd 4 Jan 71 fr SSHO, subject: Contract Personnel Administration in CIA 1947 - 1966 (16 Dec 70 ed.)

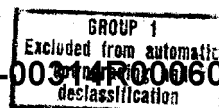

(b) Memo dtd 1 Oct 70 to [REDACTED] through [REDACTED] fr SSHO, same subject

1. With the attached memorandum, reference (a), the Support Services Historical Officer is returning the latest version of the CPD history with his comments. From his marginal notes and editing on the draft it is evident that [REDACTED] has reviewed the paper very carefully. It is also clear that the paper represents little progress over the previous version. You will recall that I returned that paper to you with reference (b) on 7 October 1970 indicating [REDACTED] desire to work with you in developing an outline for a new paper.

2. On 13 October 1970 I suggested again that you arrange for [REDACTED] to meet with [REDACTED] to develop an acceptable outline. On 15 October 1970 you advised me that [REDACTED] had been in touch with [REDACTED] had agreed with him on a tentative outline and would work closely with [REDACTED] to complete the project as soon as possible. Apparently this didn't happen. [REDACTED] says that his only contact with [REDACTED] was by telephone on 13 October 1970 when [REDACTED] said he would work up an outline for discussion with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] heard nothing more until he received the material which is returned herewith.

3. Now, [REDACTED] has prepared a suggested outline. He asks that we review it and again requests a meeting to agree upon a mutually satisfactory approach for completing the CPD history. The present course is not acceptable. He is obviously quite willing to lend all possible assistance. I am still convinced that you should accept his help. Please give this your personal attention and let me know what course of action you propose.
